Knights of Columbus Family of the Month-

November

The Greg and Carrie Haskin Family has been recognized as Family of the Month. Greg is a long-time parishioner of Saint Edwards. He grew up attending mass in our parish where he received all of the sacraments of initiation. Carrie also received the sacraments of initiation in our parish as an adult.

Carrie grew up in Greenville. The couple met on a dating website in 2007 and arranged their first date at Olivera’s in Ionia. Carrie was so excited to meet Greg that she arrived early. The March Madness atmosphere Olivera’s was so maddening that she almost left. Luckily, Greg showed up on time and convinced her to stay to watch the Spartans win.

They were wed in 2009 by Father Victor at Saint Edwards. The couple live outside Woodland with their two charming and enormous dogs. Greg and Carrie often attend Saturday mass and have supported the parish ministry as Extraordinary Ministers, cantoring, greeting and serving on parish councils.

The couple is grateful to have participated in the Order of Christian Initiation. Even though Greg has identified with Catholicism his entire life, he recognized an increase in his faith when he attended the program with Carrie. The presentation of church teaching and perspectives of the OCIA instructors helped Carrie to connect the dots in her life to God’s presence. Thank you to the Haskin family for your testimony of faith. You can meet them or congratulate them during the Knights of Columbus Euchre tournament.

December

The December Family of the Month is the Alan and Tara Brodbeck family. The Brodbecks have been visible in the community for many years and entered into full communion with the church in 2020. The family may have joined the parish recently, but Alan, Tara and their daughter, Marjorie, are active in many parish ministries. Tara teaches faith formation. Alan also lectors, serves as an extraordinary minister and facilitates OCIA sessions. Marjorie is an altar server and enjoys volunteering for grounds clean-up twice a year. Alan’s god daughter, Penelope, attends mass but doesn’t participate in ministry, yet. Alan looks forward to guiding her towards realizing God’s work in the years to come.

When Tara and Alan met, Alan was good friends with Tara’s brother. The couple started dating in their college years and were wed in South Haven in 2004. Tara and Alan received the sacrament of confirmation during COVID and Marjorie just received the same last year. Penelope will receive her First Communion in 2034.

Alan’s family has valued community involvement ever since he can remember. You may notice the family’s involvement with Woodland Homecoming and the Community Christmas baskets. The Brodbecks appreciate the opportunities parish ministry provides them to connect with the community-at-large. Penelope enjoys going to mass on Sunday’s at 8:00. Alan, Tara and Marjorie all enjoy the Knights of Columbus programming, especially the winter euchre tournaments, which give Alan an opportunity to show off his handy collection of gadget belt buckles.

Thank you to the Brodbeck family for your works bringing about the Kingdom. You can meet and congratulate the Brodbecks after mass over coffee and donuts. If you are unsure what they look like, keep an eye out for Alan’s suit and liturgically themed tie.

The Taking of Jesus. No Force Needed

The taking of the statue of the baby Jesus from the Nativity scene at SS Peter and Paul Church is regrettable. Whatever the reason for such an act, it is unacceptable and shows how we have lost the sense of reverence for the sacred. We pray for those who took the image of the child Jesus Christ and hope they have a change of heart and realize what they have done.

Nevertheless, in hindsight, this situation made me think there can be a silver lining even in unfortunate events. Christ came into the world to be with us, especially for those who are hurting, troubled, and lacking in faith, to bring healing and wholeness to their souls. God desires to be with us. Those who took Him away may be in for a surprise when they realize that Christ, our Lord, ultimately desires to be with them as well.

To all who seek to embrace Christ or have already welcomed Him into their hearts, I gently encourage you to stay close to Him. There is no need for any form of deceit or force—simply approach Him sincerely and ask. Trust in His power to bring wonderful changes into your life. Remember the thief on the cross with Jesus, who humbly recognized his need and asked for mercy. Christ lovingly assured him, “Today you will be with me in paradise.”

El robo de la imagen del Niño Jesús. No se necesita la fuerza.

El robo de la estatua del Niño Jesús de nuestro pesebre en San Pedro y Pablo es lamentable. Cualquiera que sea el motivo de tal acto, es inaceptable y demuestra cuánto hemos perdido el sentido de reverencia por lo sagrado. Oramos por quienes se llevaron la imagen del Niño Jesús y esperamos que cambien de parecer y se den cuenta de lo que han hecho.

Sin embargo, en retrospectiva, esta situación me hizo pensar que incluso en los acontecimientos desafortunados puede haber un lado positivo. Cristo vino al mundo para estar con nosotros, especialmente con aquellos que sufren, están afligidos y carecen de fe, para traer sanación e integridad a sus almas. Dios desea estar con nosotros. Quienes se lo llevaron quizás se sorprendan al darse cuenta de que Cristo, nuestro Señor, en última instancia, también desea estar con ellos.

A todos los que buscan abrazar a Cristo o ya lo han acogido en sus corazones, les animo con cariño a permanecer cerca de Él. No hay necesidad de engaño alguno; simplemente acérquense a Él con sinceridad y pidan. Confíen en su poder para traer cambios maravillosos a sus vidas. Recuerden al ladrón en la cruz junto a Jesús, quien humildemente reconoció su necesidad y pidió misericordia. Cristo le aseguró con amor: «Hoy estarás conmigo en el paraíso».
